Women of Boys Pull Up and Paint

It was a night of singing, fun, and relaxation for The Women of Boys as they participated in a guided painting of a beautiful Black Queen by our very own creative and talented Program Manager, Ingrid Evans. There was no shortage of laughter for mom's night out.

Lunchbox Talks Expands to Carver and Congress Middle School

Congratulations to Program Facilitator, Coach Karnell, as the Lunch Box Talks has officially expanded to Carver Middle School and Congress Middle School. The “Lunchbox Talks” Program supports the social and emotional well-being of African American/Black male students by creating a safe space with a trusted adult. These sessions are offered on school campuses during lunchtime to a select group of students who school faculty identify as needing or could benefit from an African American Black male mentor/coach. These sessions take place once a week during the school day for 30-minutes. Here the boys can be seen discussing the importance of honesty and integrity and to take ownership of their words and statements. Thank you Coach Karnell!

C2G Academic Academy Student of the Month Gabriel Alexander

This month, Connect to Greatness would like to highlight the hard work and achievements of Gabriel Alexander, who is a sixth grader at Tradewinds Elementary. Recognizing that he needed additional assistance in Intensive Reading, Gabriel attended weekly academic tutoring sessions with Coach Theresa and achieved a 100% on his Reading Plus assignments. In addition, Connect to Greatness was able to provide Gabriel with a new laptop to assist with school work and homework assignments.
