The Annual Connect to Greatness® Graduation

It was an unforgettable day filled with laughter, joy, and community spirit. Thank you to all of our sponsors, attendees, and community supporters who attended the annual Connect to Greatness® Graduation on June 15th at the Boynton Beach Cultural Arts Center.

We enjoyed celebrating the remarkable achievements of our boys graduating in greatness. Special thanks to Eugene Spann Jr. who was our C2G Graduation speaker who delivered a powerful message of encouragement and support for the achievements of our young kings.

We are thrilled to share with you the electronic program which captures the essence of the event, honoring the achievements and hard work of our graduates.

Honoring Opal Lee: The Grandmother of Juneteenth

On Juneteenth, we pay tribute to Opal Lee, affectionately known as the "Grandmother of Juneteenth." At 94, her Connect to Greatness® Scholarship Recipients!

Special congratulations to our graduating seniors Bryce Webb, David Simouang, and King Bridgett who have been a part of C2G since its inception as Middle Schoolers. King Bridgett was awarded with a $3,000 Connect to Greatness Scholarship. Bryce Webb and David Simouang were awarded with a $5,000 Connect to Greatness Scholarship to use toward college preparation. Congratulations boys on all your hard tireless efforts led to Juneteenth being recognized as a national holiday in 2021. Opal's dedication to civil rights and her fight for equality continue to inspire us all. Thank you, Opal, for your unwavering commitment to justice and for reminding us of the importance of freedom and resilience.
